2) Mountain Gate Community Services District

The Municipal Services Review & Sphere of Influence Update report was included and circulated with the agenda.

Vice-Chairman Morgan noted on page 11 of the report, item 6 needs to read City of Shasta Lake, not Shasta Lake City.

Commissioner Farr noted corrections to be made on page 4 of the report the last paragraph under item 3, second sentence is incorrect with the date of 1989 with the District being annexed. Shasta Dam Public Utility needs to read Shasta Dam Area Public Utility. Resolution 96-01 needs to be listed as LAFCO resolution. On page 8 of the report, second paragraph, reads Wonderland Blvd in Redding, CA and needs to be corrected, also on page 11, second paragraph. Page 11 item 6 reads 1987 with the date being incorrect.

Hearing was opened to the public. Jeff Cole, Manager, Mountain Gate CSD stated the amount of water received is 50% of a three year average which equates to 333 acre feet. Ground water is few and far between and rely on the lake water as the biggest source. Residents have been asked to voluntarily cut back 25% water use.

Tom Wallace, resident in the Mountain Sphere of Influence, expressed concern that his well has run dry. He also mentioned his address is Redding. There is also concern regarding issues with property tax exchange.

Mike Hebrard, Unit Chief for CAL Fire Shasta-Trinity Unity and Chief for Shasta County Fire Department mentioned on page 8 third paragraph on Provision of Fire and Emergency Services needs to read 73 at Shasta College and not Station 43. The hearing was closed to the public.

Ms. Lopez defined the term annexation. Pending today is the affirming of the sphere of influence boundary for the district without any changes.

b. Application/Proposal Hearings:

1) LAFCO #2013-03 – Union School Road Reorganization

Chairman Baugh asked legal counsel for direction as this item had been rescheduled. Attorney Underwood stated rescheduled hearings that were agendized are not agendized for the purpose of deliberations or discussion or action by the commission. The public may provide comments if the Commission wishes, staff can provide updates, however the Commission cannot deliberate or take action.

Ms. Lopez informed the Commission that the property tax exchange proceedings are still ongoing. Once the process has been concluded, a certificate of filing and hearing can take place.

Chairman Baugh opened the meeting to the public to address this issue. Chris Kobe thanks Ms. Lopez for rescheduling the hearing. He discussed an issue with the property tax exchange process with the Shasta County regarding time lines in legal noticing. Chairman Baugh clarified that the LAFCO Commission does not negotiate nor direct negotiations between entities.

Tom Wallace, homeowner questioned if Ms. Lopez had previously explained that if the people affected by the annexation want it to happen then it will happen. Ms. Lopez addressed the question, stating it is the concept that the majority of people that negates the ability to protest or force an election and it was just shy by 1 to have 100%, so the reorganization itself is in good shape. Mr. Wallace asked, if the county maintains their position of unwillingness to give up the fire area and LAFCO will only accept the application for both water and fire, then residences won't get the water annexation they wanted. Chairman Baugh answered the question by stating LAFCO can receive those requests, LAFCO cannot mandate those requests.

Jeffrey D. Cole, Manager, Mountain Gate CSD commented that if LAFCO could inform agencies of a property tax exchange with the county up front, it would help solve some issues. Meeting was closed to the public.

c. Continued Hearings: None provided.

d. Conducting Authority Hearings:

1) LAFCO #2013-04 – Deschutes Reorganization
